

Professor Mustafa Erdik

Professor

Kandilli Observatory and Earthquake Research Institute, Bogazici University, Turkey

Mustafa Erdik is a Professor Emeritus of Earthquake Engineering at Bogazici University, Istanbul and currently serves as the President of the Turkish Earthquake Foundation. He has received his MSc and Ph.D. degrees from Rice University, USA. He has been working with UN organizations and several international foundations around the world on earthquake engineering problems and has authored and co-authored 5 books and about 300 scientific publications.

He is the recipient of United Nation's Sasakawa Disaster Prevention Award, NATO's Science for Peace Summit Prize, Bruce Bolt Medal given by Earthquake Engineering Research Institute, USA; Prof. Nicholas Ambraseys Distinguished Lecture Award given by the European Association for Earthquake Engineering and; Science Award by Scientific and Technological Research Council of Turkey.

His current research and professional involvement encompass earthquake hazard and risk assessment and earthquake insurance modeling.